Volunteers with the Fusion Thrift Shoppe in Morinville donated bags of clothing for charity on May 5.

The Father's House Christian School partnered with store manager Jocelyn Hansen as part of the school's commitment to the community.

"It's just a win-win all the way around," said Hansen. She noted that it's great for people who support the store with donations because they know those items will go to someone who values and appreciates the gesture of giving.

Hansen and the volunteers also partnered with Family and Community Services to donate blankets, quilts and pillows intended for those in need.

"A big shipment went out for that purpose as well, all for free and all donated from the community. It's a great partnership all the way around," said Hansen.

Fusion Thrift Shoppe recently installed a new sign above their door to help visitors find gently used treasures on 100th Avenue.

The store is in the same premises where the Body Shop Fitness Centre operated and Hansen wanted a new sign after their grand opening on February 1.

"Bonnie and Robert Provos prepared the wood and painted it, and then Hunter Printing put the letters on it," said Hansen, noting the sign is made of painted plywood. "We want it to be as economical as we Canada's top Bull Riders challenged Alberta's 30 best-bucking bulls at the Bullarama Supreme on May 7 at the outdoor rodeo grounds near Lamont.

Approximately 900 fans gathered at the outdoor rodeo to cheer cowboys riding 2,000-pound bulls.

The annual event is hosted by the Lamont & District Agricultural Society. Rebecca Joseph, the Bullarama Committee Chair since 2018, has volunteered for the past 26 years. Seven committee members work year-round to organize the event and ramp up their planning in January.

"I really like the event coordinating," said Joseph.

Bike Rodeo in Legal

Nurses from Alberta Health Services participated by helping students fit their helmets and wear them properly.

This precaution was done in the concession area before the young bike riders entered the arena.

They were greeted by friendly Enforcement Services members who guided them in navigating the obstacle course comprised of numerous orange traffic cones.

"We're really looking forward to this spring and summer to engage with the community through these positive ways," said Roblin.

"Today is a great opportunity to engage with the kids in a positive, friendly environment.

Hopefully they walk away and will take those steps through the summer when they're out and about, so they're being safe on their bikes."

According to the Town of Legal, the free bicycle safety clinic provided great value to kids in the community.

"This is an exciting event that we brought back to our school age kids," said Susan Pearce, Safety & Community Services Coordinator with the Town of Legal.

"Spring is in the air, so it's a really great time to host an event like this," said Pearce.

"To talk about road safety, bike safety and helmet safety will help keep our kids safe in the community."

The Town of Legal hosted a Bike Safety Clinic on May 4 at the arena for students in Grades K to 6 from Legal School and Ecole Citadel.

Members from Sturgeon County Enforcement Services teamed up with Morinville RCMP officers and nurses from Alberta Health Services to facilitate the clinic.

"We've done this annually for a number of years and it's important we get all the kids from the various grades through the schools in the community," said Matthew Roblin, Peace Officer Supervisor with Sturgeon County Enforcement Services.

"We teach them about helmet safety, bicycle safety and the importance of learning the rules of the road," said Roblin.

"We run them through an obstacle course that teaches them how to ride safely through the course to develop those skills - it's really about giving the kids a safety mindset when they're out and about, especially around helmet safety and why that's important."

Level: Beginner

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

The store is operated by Fusion Canada, a Christian charity that was established in Australia 60 years ago. They are in 24 countries and have been in Canada for over 20 years.

Hansen says Fusion Thrift Shoppe will continue to partner with local organizations such as Jessie’s House, Victim Services, RCMP, the Rotary Club, Kinsmen, seniors’ centres, churches and the Town of Morinville.

Morinville Ice Hut re-opening soon

By Grant Cree

Residents seeking cold treats and other eats can soon enjoy them at The Ice Hut on 100 Street in Morinville.
Dawn McAstocker is the new owner who bought the store in August 2021, and she hopes to re-open sometime in May, depending on weather conditions. “I want everybody to know that it is still the same,” said McAstocker. “I am very ambitious, and I hope that my children keep going with it because I want to see it be something that people love. I just want to make it welcoming.”

The new location between Morinville Sports and Smith Music will soon have a gravel parking lot in anticipation of customers visiting to enjoy cool treats.

“We were looking to have a larger place to offer ice cream, so we needed a bigger facility,” said McAstocker. She wants The Ice Hut to become a popular community gathering place for families and customers who enjoy ice cream and treats.
“I intend to support other local businesses and hold events and whatever I can do to help out,” said McAstocker.

Students at Legal School strategizing Thanks to this “focus group” of Titans who volunteered to provide feedback about the school assurance survey results and share some suggestions about strategies that can be put in place for the school assurance goals! There may have been some yummy treats to eat while hearing the presentation, but they had some very good suggestions!

“It’s an incredible feeling to have done something for the community and see people enjoying themselves while at the event.” She noted the committee has hosted Bullarama for 28 years. In 2017, they moved from the indoor venue within town limits to the current outdoor rodeo grounds at the Conrad Schinkinger Memorial Grounds.

“The community just loves it,” said Joseph. “It’s that feeling of seeing everybody in the stands coming out to support the event outdoors, even if it’s snowing.”

Joseph credited 46 volunteers who volunteered more than 500 hours to make the event possible this year. The team facilitated logistics, including security guards, free parking, concessions, porta-potties and live entertainment. “This is a volunteer organization. Bullarama can’t be done without our volunteers,” said Joseph. “We’re always looking for people who want to get involved in terms of planning, or the day of, or whatever they can bring to the table.”

A rodeo clown (right) and cowboys wait for the call before opening the chute to release a 2,000-pound bull and rider during Bullarama Supreme on May 7 at the outdoor rodeo grounds near Lamont.
