Morinville resident wins Persons Case scholarship

By Grant Cree

Morinville resident Doveina Bolen recently won a $2,500 scholarship for the 2021-2022 Persons Case Scholarship.

The provincial government scholarship supports the achievements of Alberta students by making their post-secondary education more accessible.

As part of the application, Bolen was required to share her experiences and aspirations. Applicants were also asked what they are doing to advance gender equality and improve women's lives in Alberta and beyond.

Bolen noted she applied for the scholarship to help represent people considered minorities in the Canadian population.

For example, her research revealed that only 20 percent of people in policing are women. Policing is Bolen's preferred career.

"The scholarship is about under represented people from different backgrounds and cultures, including the LGBTQ2 community," said Bolen.

"They [police agencies] are looking for more women. That's what inspired me to apply and to help further my career so I can help make a difference."

Bolen recently completed year one of the two-year Police Studies program at MacEwan University so she can join the RCMP.

The scholarship includes a cheque for $2,500 for each of the 40 winners. The scholarship is funded by the Government of Alberta Ministry of Culture and Status of Women.

Bolen learned that her scholarship application was successful when she checked her email on April 1.

"I was going for a class at university and checked my email, and I saw it, and I went wow!" said Bolen.

She's grateful to a couple of mentors who provided references for the application, including a retired police officer and a Taekwondo instructor.

After Bolen graduates from the Police Studies program, she plans to begin the recruiting process to join the RCMP.

Gibbons has an ULTIMATE sports fan

Young Travis Currie when the goalie stick was as big as he was.

By Susan Johnson

With the NHL playoffs upon us, many super sports fans are emerging, but the small town of Gibbons, Alberta, is home to one of Canada's ULTIMATE sports fans. Travis Currie, a lifetime Gibbons resident, is passionate about sports.

Travis follows and admires many athletes and teams, but he has his favourites like most fans. His number one sport is hockey.

The Dallas Stars are his first-choice team, and Mike Modano is his hockey idol. Interesting choices for a small-town Alberta boy.

Travis can't remember a time when he wasn't a sports enthusiast. When asked, he said he felt like he was born with a hockey stick in his hand.

Travis comes from a long line of hockey players. When he was younger, his dad was quite the goalie, both of his grandfathers played, and even his Grandma Fraser was on a hockey team.

Travis has an impressive assortment of coveted sports gear, including over 250 hockey jerseys, about 100 football jerseys, half a dozen baseball jerseys, and 50 hockey sticks from over the years.

Since he was about six years old, he gathered sports paraphernalia and collected sticker packs from the concession at the Gibbons Arena.

Travis and his brother Ben would spend endless hours organizing their hockey stickers into albums.

Ultimately, this is when Travis fell in love with the name, logo, and colours of the Minnesota North Stars, who later became the Dallas Stars. He even has seats from the old Met Center, which was the home of the North Stars and was demolished in 1994.

Travis still has his old hockey sticker albums, which harbour many cherished memories.

Over the decades, Travis has numerous inspiring memories connected to his passion for sports.

One of Travis' most unforgettable experiences was when his brother, Ben, surprised him with a plane ticket to Dallas to see Mike Modano's jersey retirement.

He spent the weekend there and watched his hockey idol be honoured by the fans. Also, there have been several road trips over the years to witness various sporting events.

Travis, and his wife Melissa, have even been to two San Francisco 49er games. One was in Minnesota, and the other was in San Francisco, where they tailgated and witnessed Gerry Rice's jersey retirement. Travis will also never forget when one of his primary teachers took him to his first Minnesota North Stars game and further ignited his passion for hockey.

This became a positive motivation for Travis during his school years.

When asked why he is so passionate and has invested so much time and money in sports and collecting, Travis eagerly answered, "As a fan, it's the closest we can come to being our heroes."

He also noted that many of the old jerseys are great conversation pieces and nostalgic fashion statements.

Many Gibbons residents are familiar with Travis and his phenomenal enthusiasm. He has lent jerseys to school kids for team jersey days, even Gretzky's number 99.

Travis can also be seen regularly at the Gibbons outdoor rink, and he has formed some unique friendships on that rink. Travis believes, “Everyone has a common language at the outdoor rink.”

He believes in paying it forward and wants to see drop-in ball hockey games as regular community activities at the new rink.

Travis has an extra hockey stick or two for anyone who might show up without one.

Travis is a small-town boy at heart, but his sporting knowledge and super fandom are also recognized in bigger circles. He’s been running social media accounts for a Sportsnet sponsor in Calgary, setting NHL playoff drafts for Sportsnet, and providing all of the content for hockey trivia contests on the Flames’ pre-game shows.

These activities are right up his alley, and he is getting paid to do something he loves.

If you don’t already know Travis Currie, the Gibbons’ super sports fan, you can often find him in the evening at the outdoor rink, where he will enthusiastically welcome any participants to join in an impromptu shinny game.

Undoubtedly, Travis is an ultimate sports fan, but he is also an outstanding citizen of the community.

His enthusiasm is contagious, and he is a positive role model for the younger generation.

The town of Gibbons is a better place thanks to its ultimate sports fan, Travis Currie!

COMMUNITY NOTICE

ANNUAL VEGETATION MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Every year, CN is required to clear its right-of-way of any vegetation that may pose a safety hazard. Vegetation on railway right-of-way, if left uncontrolled, can contribute to trackside fires and impair proper inspection of track infrastructure.

For safe railway operations, CN will conduct its annual vegetation control program on its rail lines in the province of Alberta.

A certified professional will be applying herbicides on and around the railway tracks (primarily along the 16 – 24 feet graveled area/ballast). All product requirements for setbacks in the vicinity of dwellings, aquatic environments, and municipal water supplies will be met.

The program is expected to take place from May to October 2022. Visit www.cn.ca/vegetation to see the list of cities as well as the updated schedule.

For more information, contact the CN Public Inquiry Line at contact@cn.ca or 1-888-888-5909.

Here’s How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

HOROSCOPE

ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

Something is stirring in your life, but you can't zero in on what needs to get done at this point in time, Aries. But you will get your focus and be able to zero in on the tasks at hand.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21)

A conflict between your personal values and those of a larger group may not make you popular with everyone, Taurus. That is alright, as you need to stick to your beliefs and feelings.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Hold your tongue when others ask for your opinion this week, Gemini. You may not be able to take things back once the words are said. Bow out graciously instead.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

Cancer, do not feel bad about caring for yourself this week, even if you must put your needs above the needs of others. How can you help others without first helping yourself?

LEO (July 23 - August 23)

It is okay to be skeptical from time to time, Leo. Just do not let negative perceptions bog you down. Realize there are moments when things are right and you can forge ahead.

VIRGO (August 24 - September 22)

Virgo, you may have an idea of what your relationship should look like, but it may be built on unreasonable perceptions. Get to the heart of your partner this week.

LIBRA (September 23 - October 23)

Libra, it may take a leap of faith to get to the next level in your career. Instead of taking the safe path, you might need to change things up a bit to ensure action.

SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22)

A project that once inspired you, Scorpio, may no longer seem worthy of your time. You're not fickle; you just want to maximize productivity. Something new will turn up.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

Love isn't always easy, Sagittarius. Oftentimes you have to work at it to make it stronger. If you're willing to put in the effort, you will reap the rewards.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

Clear and concise conversations will compel others to see your side of the story, Capricorn. You will probably gain a few extra supporters in the process.

Jenny Baril (right) and her daughter Ronnalyn (left) hosted a table for Friends of Legal Library during the annual Town Wide Garage Sale on May 14 in the Centralta Community Centre. "We're mostly here to raise awareness that the library is hopefully a thing of the not-so-distant future," said Jenny. "We feel it's important because it gives a public space for people to gather. A library gives you programing, and it gives you access to books, which Legal doesn't have now."

Carey and Danielle Hamelin of Legal held their annual garage sale on May 14. "We have some really interesting pieces," said Danielle. "We have wine barrels, church pews, lots of tools and hardware. A good assortment of things." The Town of Legal hosted the annual Town Wide Garage Sale; more than 30 residences across the community participated.
