Fifty years in business for Namao Auto & RV Repair

In 1962 the founder of Namao Auto & RV Repair, Ted Suranyi, was enrolled in the Alberta Apprenticeship Program with a goal of becoming an Automotive Service Technician (known then as “Motor Vehicle Mechanic”). Having always enjoyed working with hands and tinkering with vehicles, Ted spent his apprenticeship years working for Master Motors Services Co. which was located on 97st and 118 ave in Edmonton.

As luck would have it for Ted, just down the road from where he was working, a big brand new school was being built with the vision an Edmonton-based institute for apprenticeship and vocational training.

This school was to be named the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology and Ted would become part of one of the first graduating classes from NAIT under their Motor Vehicle Mechanic trade.

Ted continued to work for Master Motors Service for several years until in 1972, when he came home to his wife one day to share his dream of opening their own shop.

Ted and Deanna had three very young boys at the time, ranging from 5-8 years old.

As you can imagine, this was no small risk, but Ted saw the opportunity and knew that the Namao area could benefit from having a local automotive and truck repair shop.

Ted and Deanna were living on an acreage in Carbondale at the time, (only 5 min from Namao) so it was decided that this was the best place to build a small 3 bay facility.

Due to the size of their property, it was also decided that a storage lot would work well to compliment the business so the original entity included a storage lot in the field next to the building. (BTW - Ted still resides on the original Carbondale acreage, as did Deanna until her passing in 2021.)

Now that a dream was in motion and a plan was in place, all that was needed was a name... Taking a practical approach of combining the first letters of their names and a description of what they were going to be doing, seemed like a good idea.... as such, in September of 1972....

T&D SERVICE & STORAGE LTD. was officially started!

Robert Louis Chauvet August 7, 1946 - April 22, 2020

You are invited to celebrate the life of Robert Chauvet at Fable Garden Hall, Morinville, Alberta on Saturday, July 16, 2022 at 11:00 a.m.

Robert's life was mutually enriched by those who predeceased him: his son Louis, his parents Paul and Simone Chauvet, his sister Paulette and brothers Maurice (Simonne) and Michel (Ellen). Robert leaves behind his wife Hien Ho and their two children Pierre and Sophie, as well as his children from his first marriage with Jeanne Gagné, Suzanne (Don) and Paulette (Greg) and four grandchildren Nadia, Isabelle, Caroline and Abby. His surviving brothers Raymond (Nicole), Ernest (Lorretta), Gerald (Dominique) and his sisters Rose-Marie (Claude) and Anita (Roberto) will miss their entrepreneurial brother.

To Robert, life was an adventure with challenges that were welcomed and successfully overcome. He enjoyed construction from an early age in the Legal area and then pursued a career as a builder and developer in Morinville. His challenges in construction included spearheading the family project "Manoir Savenay", the saving and retrofitting of the Notre Dame Historical Convent, the building of Chauvet-Ho Apartments and the development of Morinville Heritage Village Estates and Roy Avenue Developments.

The project that best represents his youthful spirit, his sense of vision and out-of-the-box thinking was the conceptualising and construction of the Fable Gardens in Morinville. He thrived on the energy, complexity and teamwork of construction and was grateful for the many relationships developed over the course of his life. Robert will be missed by his immediate family, his nephews, nieces and those who have worked with him over the years.
