Kings hammer Chiefs in home opener

By Stephen Dafoe and Morinville Online

The Morinville Senior AA Kings hit the ice at the Landrex Arena on October 1 to start the 2022-2023 North Central Senior Hockey League season with a home opener against the visiting Fort Saskatchewan Chiefs. That outing ended in a 13-2 victory for the Kings.

The Kings came out strong in the first period, outshooting the Chiefs 14-4 and capitalizing on roughly 20 per cent of those chances to lead the period 3-1.

The middle frame saw the Kings and Chiefs evenly matched on scoring opportunities, but Kings' backstop Ty Swabb deflected all 14 of Fort Saskatchewan's attempts, while the Chiefs let in another three of the Kings' shots on net. Swabb would ultimately stop 22 of the 24 pucks sent his way.

Leading the game 6-1 heading into the third, the Kings dominated the period, scoring another seven goals to the Chiefs' single contribution. Four of those goals game in the last five minutes.

Kings President Wayne Gatza is anticipating another solid season for the Kings.

"It's going to be a good season –we've got our core back, and we've added a couple of guys from the U of A's Golden Bears and another guy from Grant McEwan,"

Rotary Club of Morinville–Sturgeon open LAV III Monument

By Stephen Dafoe
and Morinville Online

Current and veteran members of the Canadian Armed Forces and the general public came out Sunday, October 2, for the grand opening ceremony of the Rotary Club of Morinville–Sturgeon’s Light Armoured Vehicle III (LAV III) Military Monument.

The monument, located just west of the parking lot at the MorinvilleLeisure Centre, is one of only five such LAV III monuments in the province and the only one in the Edmonton area.

The project began in 2015 when retired soldier Jayson Woodhad the idea to acquire one of the decommissioned vehicles for Morinville to honour a fellow soldier who had died.

Wood approached the Rotary Club for assistance, and the club stepped up on the condition that the monument’s dedication would be to all military members past, present and future. Additionally, the Rotary Club wanted to involve Morinville, Sturgeon County, and the Morinville Legion and have an educational component.

“It’s been a long time coming,” Wood told Morinville Online before the ceremony. “I’m overwhelmed by how much a community can really come together to establish a monument for those who have served, and continue to serve, and to also have a piece of history that we can share with our kids.”

Sharing that history with children will be easy. The public display has several interpretive signs with information about the vehicle and QR codes for further details.

During the official ceremony, Rotarian Gord Putnam explained the project’s history, costs and the many organizations and businesses that stepped up to help make the project a reality.

The LAVIII was transported from London, Ontario to Regina, Saskatchewan by rail, then to Edmonton Garrison by truck. The vehicle has been at the Garrison since 2019 as the Rotary Club continued to raise funds for the project. The LAV III arrived at its present location on September 9, and work has been underway to get the site ready for the October 2 opening.

Rotary received two grants for the project, $25,000 from Veterans Affairs and $125,000 from the province under the Community Facilities Enhancement Program.

“Without this support, this monument would not have been possible,” Putnam said during his presentation, noting Rotarian Mark Stevens was instrumental in helping secure the grants.

Putnam spoke emotionally of the help of Gerald van Bruggen of Heritage Nurseries, who had seen an article on the project and wanted to help.

“The last month here on site has seen countless hours of time and effort by Gerald and his crew,” Putnam said, noting the company worked in the dark the previous night to finish planting trees.

Before the ceremony, Putnam said the completed monument represents years of planning by a lot of people.

“It’s important to the community because, as we know, Morinville and Sturgeon County region is made up of many military members and their families,” Putnam said. “To honour those people is important. I can’t be more proud of how it’s come together and how it looks.”

It is a sentiment shared by Morinville–St. Albert MLA and Associate Minister of Natural Gas and Electricity Dale Nally.

“This is an incredible moment, and I commend the Rotary Club for spearheading this project,” Nally said. “This sends a strong message to the veterans in this riding that we support the military, and to have this constant reminder of the important role the military plays is absolutely fabulous.”

Morinville Mayor Simon Boersma also commended the Rotary for their work in making the monument a reality. “It’s so amazing to see what this means to us, to have this many people in our community that have fought for our freedoms. To see this from the road shows – this is what our town stands for.”

Sturgeon County Mayor Alanna Hnatiw called the monument a beautiful symbol of community and all the members of the community and the military who are deployed around the world to protect the quality of life we have in Canada.

Hnatiw praised the collaboration on the project. “Whether you were laying sod or planting trees, everybody has had a hand in it,” Hnatiw said.

and every one of us.”

Colonel R.W. McBride, Commander, 3rd Canadian Division Support Base Edmonton, said Morinville and Sturgeon hold a special place and have a part to play in the past and ongoing support to the military members and their families.

“The vast majority of the military community calls Morinville and Sturgeon County home, and the support they receive is truly phenomenal,” Col. McBride said. The colonel noted that over the past 20 years, the Canadian military had been the busiest both at home and overseas since the Second World War. “We cannot do this without the support of our communities.”

Col. McBride went on to say the LAV III is a testament to the work soldiers have done overseas.

“It symbolizes the sacrifices so many have made to ensure we are safe and secure in our country,” McBride said. “This vehicle was indeed the workhorse in Afghanistan. As a veteran of that conflict, like so many other soldiers, the LAV III became my home for many days and often weeks at a time.”

McBride concluded his address by saying that as many veterans pass the monument, it will let them reflect on the service and sacrifice so many had made.

On October 29, 2011, Morinville experienced those sacrifices when a vehicle-borne improvised explosive device (IED) took the life of a Morinville resident, Master Corporal Byron Greff, who was one of 17 killed in the suicide bomber attack which stuck an International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) vehicle. Greff, the last Canadian soldier killed in Afghanistan, was mentioned during Sunday’s ceremony.

The Rotary LAV III monument will be permanently lit and sits below the Canadian and Canadian military flags, the only two flags permitted to fly on the poles.

Bon Accord & Gibbons Food Bank needs your help

By Myrina Carter

Bon Accord & Gibbons Food Bank needs help because food stocks are pretty low.

The food bank is a supplier of many families and individuals in need. The food bank helps people from Gibbons, Bon Accord and Legal. The three fire departments for the various towns decided to step up and give a helping hand.

In his best efforts, The Town of Gibbons Fire Department Captain Will Benson organized a competition between The Town of Gibbons Fire Department, District of Legal Fire Department, and District of Bon Accord Fire Department. All the firefighters between the departments spent two weeks collecting food for the Bon Accord & Gibbons Food Bank.

The friendly competitions weigh-off was held October 5 at 9:30 am. The District of Bon Accord came in third place, weighing in at 180 pounds, and the Town of Gibbons Fire Department came in second place, weighing in at 310 pounds. The District of Legal came first with a whopping 1078 pounds of food. All fire departments put in maximum effort and raised as much food as possible.

Captain Will Benson said, “At the end of the day, the community needs more help now than we have seen in the past years. The people at the fire department are here to help the community. They stepped up big time in all three departments. The challenge was to help give a bit of motivation to our local firefighters, and it took a runaway and was a lot more than we expected.”

The mission of the Bon Accord & Gibbons Food Bank is to help provide individuals and families in crisis, giving quality, nutritious foods. Donate today and support a family tomorrow. If there are any further questions about how you can help today, contact the Bon Accord & Gibbons Food Bank by telephone at 780-923-2344.

The Morinville Jets fell 5-3 to the visiting Stony Plain flyers October 2, their second loss in as many outings. The Jets started their evening strong enough, outshooting the Flyers 12-7 and capitalizing on two of those chances to lead the period 2-1. But fortunes were reversed in the second period, and the Jets found themselves trailing 4-3 heading into the final frame. The last 20 minutes were not to be the Jets. The Flyers added one to make it 5-3, and even pulling their goalie in the closing minute did not give the Jets the two they needed to push it to over time. Sunday’s loss brings the Jets to a 2-2-0 record this season. – Stephen Dafoe Photo

“Our new recruits are looking good. We lost a few, but we replaced them with better players. I think it’s going to be a great year, fun, and we should be right up at the top again.”

The Kings play three more games this month. All three games are road games. They play Lacombe on October 15, Devon on October 21, and Westlock on October 29.

The club returns to the Landrex arena on November 5 for an 8 p.m. game against the Devon Barons.

HOROSCOPE

ARIES

(March 21 – April 20)

It may be tempting to throw your weight around and assert power in a situation, Aries. But this may backfire in the long run. Try to be a team player.

TAURUS

(April 21 – May 21)

Taurus, someone close to you may be driving you crazy, and you’re tempted to let them know. However, go with the flow instead and enjoy this calmer approach.

GEMINI

(May 22 – June 21)

Gemini, an important decision must be made in the days ahead. Take a calm approach and do your best to keep your emotions out of this discussion.

CANCER

(June 22 – July 22)

Once you involve others in a situation, it can be difficult to dial back their involvement, Cancer. Consider whether you should ask for input or go it alone this week.

LEO

(July 23 – August 23)

Leo, rather than shouting from the rooftops how much you love a person, it may be better to take a more subtle approach. Reel in your excitement for the time being.

VIRGO

(August 24 – September 22)

Keeping secrets is not the way to go, Virgo, especially when they are kept from someone close to you. Why all the smoke and mirrors? Be open and honest with yourself and others.

LIBRA

(September 23 – October 23)

A financial situation may be worked out this week or even inflamed, Libra. The only way to stay ahead is to keep careful track of your expenditures.

SCORPIO

(October 24 – November 22)

Be honest with yourself about your needs, Scorpio. If you don’t feel like socializing in a loud and public manner, organize a group to come over for some more quiet R&R.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 – Dec. 21)

Getting involved with chores and other tasks can occupy your mind with some busy work, Sagittarius. After a brief mental break, you can return to more serious tasks.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 – Jan. 20)

Finances may get a boost this week as a new income stream falls into your lap, Capricorn. Investigate it fully before getting deeply involved.

AQUARIUS

(January 21 – February 18)

Opening up about your personal life may relieve some pressure and stress that you have been feeling, Aquarius. Find someone who doesn’t have a close stake.

PISCES

(February 19 – March 20)

Don’t spread the word about a big idea until you are sure about it and ready to move, Pisces. Don’t let others steal your thunder.
