By Stephen Dafoe

Students at Four Winds Public School in Morinville have been rehearsing lines, songs, and dance moves for several months ahead of their latest production Annie Jr. set to take place May 31, June 1 and 2 at the Morinville Community Cultural Centre.

Annie Jr. is a beloved musical that audiences have enjoyed for decades. Based on the comic strip Little Orphan Annie by Harold Gray, the story follows the plucky orphan Annie as she navigates life in the 1930s during the Great Depression. However, Annie Jr. is a unique version of the musical, specifically designed for young performers.

The show accommodates a shorter runtime and younger voices while maintaining the original production's heart and soul.

The show has become popular for school productions and community theatres, allowing young actors to shine in roles typically reserved for adults.

Four Winds Public School teachers, Autumn Willms and Savannah Bosch, have been working with the cast and crew to prepare the show for its three-night run.

"This play was selected because very early into the production process, we find that it is our female students that are more partnered with [the school's] Dance Academy," said Savannah Bosch, the other director and the production's musical coordinator.

"So we wanted to look at a cast that has a lot more of those female roles, but we also really liked that this play had a lot of opportunities for gender neutrality and inclusion if we needed to make adjustments.”

Bosch said they selected the play due to its classic standing in theatre.

“I grew up watching the movie over and over again. I think it is one of the reasons I became a singer. The storyline of somebody coming from a tough situation and just rising to meet all of those challenges and bettering themselves really resonates for students.”

Autumn Willms, one of the show’s directors and the production’s choreographer, said Annie Jr., in addition to being a condensed version of the classic musical, removes some elements.

“It’s a little more kid-friendly. It takes away some of the scenes in the classic that maybe would not be suitable for this age group,” Bosch said.

“Our play is an hour-long, so we are able to get through all of the songs and the scenes in just an hour versus a play that would need an intermission.”

Auditions for the hour-long production began last November. The production runs as a Career and Technology Foundations (CTF) option. As such, rehearsals started during the school’s second CTF rotation in November and ran twice per week during that programming block, allowing two hours per week of rehearsal time.

After Spring Break in March, the production commenced after-school rehearsals, with an extra four hours on Fridays.

“We’ve seen an immense amount of growth from all of our students,” Willms said.

“It’s so cool to see how each and every one of them has just gotten so into their character and grown into this play. We’ve had kids start from being super shy to say anything in front of the class to starring in one of the bigger roles. It’s really impressive.”

The teachers and directors are appreciative of the support of students, parents, sponsors and the various departments that have helped with various aspects of the production, including set building, costumes, marketing and makeup.

Annie Jr. runs May 31, June 1 and June 2 at 6:30 each night, with doors opening at 6 p.m. Each evening will be opened by either students from Four Winds Dance Academy or the band.

Tickets for the show are $10 and are available online on the school’s website or at the door.

Fun By The Numbers:

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

SEE SOLUTIONS PAGE 6

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Two-day wellness retreat planned for June

by Stephen Dafoe

Holistic wellness practitioners Michelle Bateman of Soul Journey and Kyli Hope of Hope's Healing & Coaching are joining forces to host what they say is a transformative weekend of mind, body, and soul renewal.

The Expanded Wellness Weekend, set to take place on June 10 and 11 at the Putnam's Free Spirit Ranch just outside of Morinville, promises to be a powerful event aimed at helping attendees gain self-awareness, discover their inner potential, and achieve proper balance in all aspects of life.

Kyli Hope said the idea came to her to bring people together to teach holistic wellness modalities for their mental health and wellness.

"Talk therapy is great, but there is more to it. You have to heal in mind, body and soul," Hope explained.

"I wanted to bring a bunch of facilitators together to [instruct] people who are willing or wanting to learn more about holistic healing."

The two-day retreat offers a variety of holistic techniques led by several practitioners in the field of holistic wellness, including morning yoga with Kristy Weibe of Optimal Yoga and Wellness, hypnosis and stress relief with Carole Latawiec of Honor Yourself Hypnotherapy, and sound bowl healing journey with Tiffany Sparrow.

The retreat also offers various workshops and sessions focused on improving physical and emotional health, removing masks and moving past trauma, healing through relationships, and more.

"We don't really understand how our past experiences contribute to how we show up in life, how we navigate challenges, how we see stressful situations. So, when we use negative beliefs, these learning from childhood, we move through life in sort of a jaded way," co-organizer Michelle Bateman said.

"When you can bring awareness to where you are getting stuck and what might be contributing to stress or relationship breakdowns, or not filling fulfilled in your career, or not living up to your potential, you can begin to trace those things back and heal them on that mind, body, soul level. Then you can be truly free to be who you were created to be."

Hope agrees with the assessment that to become who one truly wants to be; one has to heal on all levels. "It's spiritually, mentally, physically, emotionally," Hope said.

"There are blockages from childhood, any traumas you've been through in your life, anything as simple as neglect. It's a big pattern. It's learning your patterns and overcoming them using different healing tools that work for you. Not everything will work for everybody."

The retreat organizers believe that true healing doesn't happen in isolation. That's why they've created what they see as a supportive and uplifting environment where men and women can connect with like-minded individuals and form meaningful relationships.

At the Expanded Wellness Weekend, attendees will be part of a community that understands and supports their journey to holistic well-being.

Bateman adds that people have lived through unprecedented times over the past few years. "Humans are designed to connect and have community," Bateman said. "So, when you remove that, people are really struggling with their mental health."

According to the retreat organizers, collective healing can create a ripple effect that impacts those who participate and those around them. They believe that you inspire others to do the same by healing oneself.

In addition to what organizers see as powerful sessions and workshops, the retreat includes lunch and a marketplace where attendees can explore different wellness products and services. Attendees can also participate in an evening fire release ceremony and take home an in-depth workbook, prizes, and other takeaways.

Bateman and Hope say the Expanded Wellness Weekend promises an unforgettable experience for those looking to immerse themselves in a transformative journey to holistic well-being, connect with like-minded individuals, and form lasting friendships.

Bateman believes investing in oneself is the best investment one can make.

"The ripple effect of that will feed your family, will feed your career, will feed your relationships," Bateman said. "It's like vehicle maintenance. We spend money to maintain our vehicles so that they run optimally, and we kind of forget to spend money to maintain our own human self to live an optimal, healthy, well-balanced life."

Hope agrees. "You are the greatest investment you'll ever make."

The Early Bird cost per person is $297 for the weekend retreat. A product raffle will take place during the event, with 100% of the proceeds going to the Jessica Martel Memorial Foundation.

HOROSCOPE

- ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

You may struggle to get going this week, Aries. But once you do, it will be full speed ahead. In fact, you may need to slow things down to let others catch up.
- TAURUS (April 21 - May 21)

Taurus, if you are feeling a bit scattered as of late, take some time out of your schedule to meditate and reflect on what is most important to you. Then follow that path.
- GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Gemini, give yourself permission to move slowly this week. If you racing through things, you're apt to make mistakes. Set your own pace and let things play out as they may.
- CANCER (June 22 - July 21)

Deadlines could make for a heated week, Cancer. It's best to remove yourself from any situations before they get out of hand. Offer advice when things cool down.
- LEO (July 23 - August 23)

Routines are boring you lately, Leo. You may need to shake things up. If you work a set schedule, see if you can go to flex time and look for ways to change.
- VIRGO (August 24 - September 22)

Do not let drama that doesn't involve you sneak into your orbit, Virgo. If you need to distance yourself from others for a while, then do so.
- LIBRA (September 23 - October 23)

Libra, others feel you're giving off some high-strung vibes this week, and they wouldn't be wrong. Something is weighing on your shoulders. Figure out what it is and lighten the load.
- SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22)

Scorpio, you're dishing out all sorts of sage advice but it may be frustrating if others don't want to take it. All you can do is offer and let others lead their lives.
- SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

Things may be a little rough around the edges lately, and you'll need to figure out the ways to smooth things over, Sagittarius. Find a few friends who are in your corner.
- CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

Capricorn, emphasize a slow and methodical approach to a problem with an elusive solution. Slowing things down has a tendency to provide substantial clarity.
- AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 18)

Disagreements on how to move forward could bring tension at home or work this week, Aquarius. Everyone needs to put their ideas on the table and whittle down the best answer.
- PISCES (February 19 - March 20)

Don't compare yourself to others, Pisces; otherwise, you may downplay all of your wonderful attributes. Be proud of who you are.
