

Morinville Council delays 2025 budget decision, revisits infrastructure building and tax hikes

By Colin Smith

There will be at least one more version of Morinville's 2025 Budget after council made several changes to the draft presented by administration at its regular meeting on Tuesday, November 12.

The adopted budget timeline had anticipated its passage at this meeting, with no further consideration of the document scheduled for future meetings.

A special meeting will now be called for the budget put on the agenda of upcoming regular meetings.

The proposed budget would have resulted in an estimated tax increase of 6.32%.

The 2025 tax on an average residential property, valued at $364,539, would be $3,304.91, or $275.41 per month.

For a commercial property assessed at $868,427, the annual tax would be $11,809.74.

The tax on a $1,467,820 industrial property would be $19,960.89.

The original draft of the budget presented in September called for a tax increase of 5.75%, or about $19.95 for a residential property valued at $350,000.

This draft included budgetary support for the Community Sports Memorabilia Initiative at $14,500 and for the Centennial Fountain refurbishment at $14,500.

The Morinville Community Library funding request of $593,008 has been approved.

In addition to its grant, a $550 deficit has been covered for Morinville Museum.

A Star Ambulance request for $1 per capita in operational support was also put in.

In addition, funds

Morinville's Infrastructure Services Building, slated for potential $564,000 in repairs, awaits Council's final budget decision as discussions push funding and timelines further into future years.

have been budgeted for a water conservation rebate, extending Morinville Leisure Centre hours of operation, a regional contract, waste management education, and a tree program.

Two included items that were dropped by council are a water barrel program, $10,500, and $30,000 annually for website management.

Morinville Jets in a great spot at the halfway mark

By Stephen Dafoe

The Morinville Jets had a two-game weekend on Friday, November 8, and Sunday, November 10, defeating the Beaumont Chiefs 6-3 on the road and the Spruce Grove Regals in a 5-4 shootout win at home.

The back-to-back wins brought the Jets to a 15-3-1 record exactly halfway through the 2024-2025 Capital Junior Hockey League regular season.

Jets Vs Chiefs

The Chiefs were the first to light the lamp during the Jets road trip to Beaumont with Austin McDonald picking up the opener off an assist from Ty Sauer.

The Jets bounced back five minutes later as Ty Van Brabant evened the score, assisted by Jets' top scorers Ethan de Champlain and Cody Laliberte.

Laliberte pocketed one of his own, assisted by de Champlain to bring the tally ahead by one for the Jets with less than five minutes on the clock.

An unassisted shorthanded goal from Spencer Paplawski would send both teams to the dressing rooms with the game sitting 2-2.

The back and forth continued in the middle frame, with Graeme Hampton moving the needle forward for the Jets and Paplawski balancing things seven minutes later on a powerplay opportunity.

2025 Morinville budget

The Facilities Master Plan, previously removed from the budget by council, was reinstated on a motion by Councillor Ray White. The plan cost is $130,000.

Much of the discussion at the meeting concerned the future of the town's Infrastructure Services Building.

Replacement of the building was included in Morinville's long-term capital plan, adopted in 2023, with the cost initially estimated at $6 million, later revised to $10 million.

The 2025 budget included $600,000 for the design phase, with construction set to begin in 2027.

On October 22, council passed a motion transferring the replacement of the Infrastructure Services Building to 2029 from 2027, with the design phase also pushed back two years.

The draft of the budget presented to council at the Tuesday, November 12 meeting called for $564,000 to fund repairs to the building that would address Occupational Health and Safety concerns and structural deficiencies identified by a consultant in 2021.

Another $259,000 was included for preparation for a site for modular office space to remedy a current lack of space and capacity of growth for the Infrastructure Services workforce.

Modular space lease payments over three years would be $123,000.

After extensive discussion, council voted unanimously to remove the site preparation funding from the 2025 Capital Budget.

A motion by Deputy Mayor Rebecca Balanko to move the $564,000 repair funding into the 2026 Operating Budget was withdrawn, and the matter set aside pending receipt of information from an ongoing condition assessment.

left on the clock, de Champlain put the Jets into a 4-3 lead to head into the third period.

The final frame would see the Jets move ahead with another pair of goals, Van Brabant pocketing one from an assist from Ashton Funk at 7:20 and Jase McRae earning a shorthanded goal at 5:41 to give the Jets a 6-3 finish and their third consecutive win.

Jets Vs Regals

The Jets struggled in the opening frame at home on Sunday night, failing to capitalize on any of their first 11 chances, while the Regals found the back of the Jets net twice during that time. But Ty Van Brabant scored with 3:16 left in the period to narrow the contest to a one-goal game.

Spruce Grove increased that gap to two when Maddox Seguin picked up a shorthanded goal three minutes in.

esse Hiller found the mesh on a powerplay goal ten minutes later to end the frame 4-1 in Spruce Grove's favour.

Facing a three-goal deficit and 20 minutes left on the clock, the Jets had some work to do. Cody Laliberte, assisted by Ashton Funk and Ethan de Champlain, started that work four minutes in to narrow the game to 4-2. Laliberte further narrowed the Regal's lead to 4-3 five minutes later and picked up his natural hat trick to tie the game 4-4 with 1:16 left on the clock, assisted by Graeme Hampton and Jacob Klassen.

With both sides looking to sink the OT winner, thirteen shots between the two clubs could not find a result, and the game went to a shootout.

The Jets clinched a 2-1 shootout victory after three tense rounds. Cody Laliberte and Austin Robinson each missed in the first round, leaving the score tied at 0-0. In the second round, Graeme Hampton broke the deadlock to give the Jets a 1-0 lead, as Landon Kupsch missed for the opposition. The Jets pulled ahead further in the third round with Ethande Champlain's goal, securing a 2-0 edge. Though Jesse Hiller scored to keep the opponents alive, it wasn't enough to turn the tide, and the Jets emerged with the win.

Looking Ahead

Heading into the second half of the CJHL regular season, the Jets sit solidly in first place in the West Division with an impressive 15-3-1 record and 31 points. That standing is four points ahead of second-place Edmonton Mustangs and seven points ahead of long-time rivals, the St. Albert Merchants.

The Jets played two games last week: a Friday, November 15 home game in Rivière Qui Barre against the Edmonton Royals and a road game on Sunday, November 17 to face the Fort Saskatchewan Hawks.

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
