Seniors' Week celebration draws nearly 200 participants in Morinville

By Shelley Winger

Nearly 200 older adults took part in Morinville's Seniors' Week celebrations, enjoying a week filled with music, conversation, entertainment, shared meals, and opportunities to connect with friends both old and new. Although rainy weather forced Morinville LIVE! activities indoors, the change in venue did little to dampen spirits. Residents gathered throughout the week to participate in a variety of events designed to celebrate older adults and encourage community connection. Seniors' Week is celebrated annually across Alberta and recognizes the important contributions older adults make to their families, neighbourhoods, workplaces, and communities. The week also serves as an opportunity to promote active living, lifelong learning, and social connection among seniors. In Morinville, the celebration offered

Alberta RCMP gives reminders for sharing roadways with commercial vehicles

As traffic increases over the summer months, the Alberta RCMP would like to remind commercial and passenger-vehicle motorists how to share our provincial roads responsibly.

Sharing roadways with, or operating, semi-trucks, tractor-trailers, busses, or other commercial vehicles, requires extra caution, especially during summer months when traffic increases.

Help avoid a collision involving a commercial vehicle by following the below tips:

Commercial vehicle drivers:

- Always complete trip inspections to ensure your vehicle is in proper operating condition.
- Always carry the required inspection certificates.
- Stay alert while driving and pull over when tired.

• Pre-plan your trip and help ensure your safety by staying updated on road, traffic, construction, and weather conditions.

• Maintain a safe following distance with other vehicles.

• Be aware of blind spots and make wide turns safely.

• If you are hauling or transporting cargo, ensure that it is properly secured.

Passenger vehicle drivers:

• Stay far enough behind big trucks to see both of its side mirrors. If you can't see the truck driver, they can't see you.

• Increase your following distance behind larger vehicles gathered from residents helped shape both the Town's new Municipal Development Plan and its four-year Strategic Plan.

"The future is being shaped by the people who call it home," was a recurring message throughout the evening as attendees learned about initiatives intended to support Morinville's continued growth while maintaining the qualities that make the community unique.

One of the key topics discussed was the recently adopted Municipal Development Plan, a long-term blueprint that will guide development over the coming decades.

The plan outlines a vision for a growing community with more housing choices, expanded business opportunities, improved connectivity and a vibrant downtown core.

The Town's Strategic Plan was also highlighted, providing residents with an overview of municipal priorities and the projects expected to shape Morinville in the coming years.

Throughout the evening, presenters spoke about balancing growth with community character, supporting local businesses, enhancing public spaces and ensuring residents have access to amenities and services closer to home.

Following the presentations, attendees had an opportunity to connect with municipal officials, community members and local stakeholders while learning more about current initiatives and future plans.

As the first event of its kind, the State of Morinville provided residents with an opportunity to reflect on how far the community has come while looking ahead to the opportunities and challenges that will shape its future.

With major planning initiatives now in place, the evening underscored a shared goal of ensuring Morinville continues to grow while remaining a community residents are proud to call home.

staying connected and engaged within the community. For many participants, Seniors' Week was as much about the conversations and friendships as it was about the scheduled activities.

Tables filled with discussion, laughter, and shared experiences reflected the sense of community that organizers hoped to create.

Photos from the week show seniors enjoying meals together, visiting information booths, speaking with community organizations and taking part in activities and entertainment.

Volunteers, performers, community groups, and local partners all contributed to the success of the celebration.

As Alberta's senior population continues to grow, events such as Seniors' Week play an important role in fostering inclusion and helping older adults remain active members of their communities.

The annual celebration provides an opportunity to recognize their contributions while creating meaningful opportunities for connection and engagement.

With another successful Seniors' Week now complete, organizers are already looking ahead to next year's celebration and the chance to once again bring residents together in recognition of the community's older adults.

to see oncoming traffic.

- Oncoming commercial vehicles can create strong wind gusts, large splashes in wet conditions, or sprays of rocks and debris. Practice defensive driving and brace when they are passing.

- Leave extra space when passing or changing lanes in front of a commercial vehicle as they require more time to slow down or come to a stop.

- Stay back when large vehicles are indicating right or left, as they require a wide turning radius.

"A variety of vehicles share our roadways every day, and it's everyone's responsibility to keep each other safe," says Sgt. Darrin Turnbull, Alberta RCMP Traffic.

"Commercial vehicles need more time and space to operate safely due to their size and weight. Help avoid a collision with one of these vehicles by practicing extra caution around them and by giving them extra space."
